REIFF RIDES IN CESAREWITCH. Then Back to Paris With M. Calllant, Who Wants to See Proofs of Gullt.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN itch Stakes was run at the Newmarket Buchanan's Black Sand. H. Lindemere's Congratulation was second and T. Corn's Rightful third. Seventeen horses ran.

After the race the stewards of the Jockey Club, in the absence of any official comcompany of M. Caillaut and his trainer, started for Paris this evening. To-morrow M. Caillant will ask permission to examine fied that his lockey is guilty, he will endeavor to secure his reinstatement. M. Criffaut told the correspondent of The Sun that the French stewards had refrained from sending out an official notice of Reiff's suspension, thereby allowing him to ride in the race for the Cesare-witch Stakes. M. Caillaut added:

"I have believed in him until the present, but the stewards have assured me that they

but the stewards have assured me that they possess absolute proof of his guilt. Therefore I am obliged to believe them, yet I am hurrying back to ask for the production of the proofs. If these do not satisfy me I will use every endeavor to secure Reiff's reinstatement.

Reiff refused totalk. He is awaiting the outcome of M. Gaillaut's efforts in his behalf.

The Sportsman's Paris correspondent says the French Jockey (Lub issued a notice on Wednesday evening announcing, without comment, that the licenses of Jockeys Henry and Reiff have been withdrawn.

There has been considerable conjecture as to why Reiff was allowed to ride at Newmarket to-day in view of the fact that the jockey clubs of Europe and the United States uphold each other's punishments. The explanation of the Newmarket stewards attitude is believed to be that they had received no notice from the French club that Reiff's license has been revoked.
